English presentation 2026

Presented By Ioanna Papadaki
B7

ANCIENT GREEK MYTHS

Ancient Greek Myths that are going to be present:

1. The abduction of Europe
2. Daedalus and Icarus
3. Lost city of Atlantis
4. Pandora’s box
5. The rape of Persephone

The abduction of Europe

Main characters:

- Europe
- Zeus
- Bull(Zeus)
- Minoas

Human Values:

It set the limits of human behavior and promoted respect for the rules of the gods.

Representation of greece:

Greece functions as a geographical and cultural bridge, East - West.

Moral of the story:

1. Even from the most violent and unpredictable changes in our lives, something magnificent can be born.
2. Ignorance of danger easily becomes a victim in the hands of absolute power.

Daedalus and Icarus

2nd myth

Main characters:

- Daedalus
- Icarus
- Minoas

Human Values:
The myth teaches us the value of being humble and knowing our limits

Representation of greece/connection to reality:
It represents ancient Greek technology and the intelligence of humanity.

Moral of the story:
Moderation, it teaches us to avoid extremes and maintain balance in life.

3rd myth

Lost city of Atlantis

Main characters:

- Poseidon
- Cleito
- Atlas
- Atlateans

Supernatural beings:
In the myth, there are supernatural beings, like the gods, especially Poseidon, who created the city and eventually destroyed it.

The theme of the myth:
The myth refers to a city, Atlantis, which was created by Poseidon.

Moral of the story:
Humans believed they were invincible like gods, so nature destroyed their city as a punishment.

4th myth

Pandora's Box

Main characters:

- Pandora
- Epimetheus
- Zeus

The Role of the Gods:

In this myth, the gods act as punishers. Zeus and the other gods work together to create Pandora as a beautiful trap to punish humanity.

Main message:

1. The danger of curiosity
2. The power of hope

Moral of the story:

The moral of the story is that curiosity can be dangerous, but hope helps us survive hard times.

5th myth

The rape of Persephone

Main characters:

- Demetra
- Persephone
- Zeus
- Hades

Connection to reality:

This is how the ancient Greeks explained the changing of the seasons

Main message:

The myth shows the unbreakable bond between a mother and her child. It also explains the cycle of life and nature

Moral of the story:

1. The role of the woman, the myth shows that in ancient times, women often had no choice in marriage.
2. The story also, shows how far a mother will go for her child.

What can ancient Greek myths teach us nowdays?

They teach us:

- The consequences of our actions
- Critical thinking
- Humility and hope

Why are they still popular?

They are still popular because:

- they are about human feelings
- the characters are not perfect, they make mistakes
- they teach us things

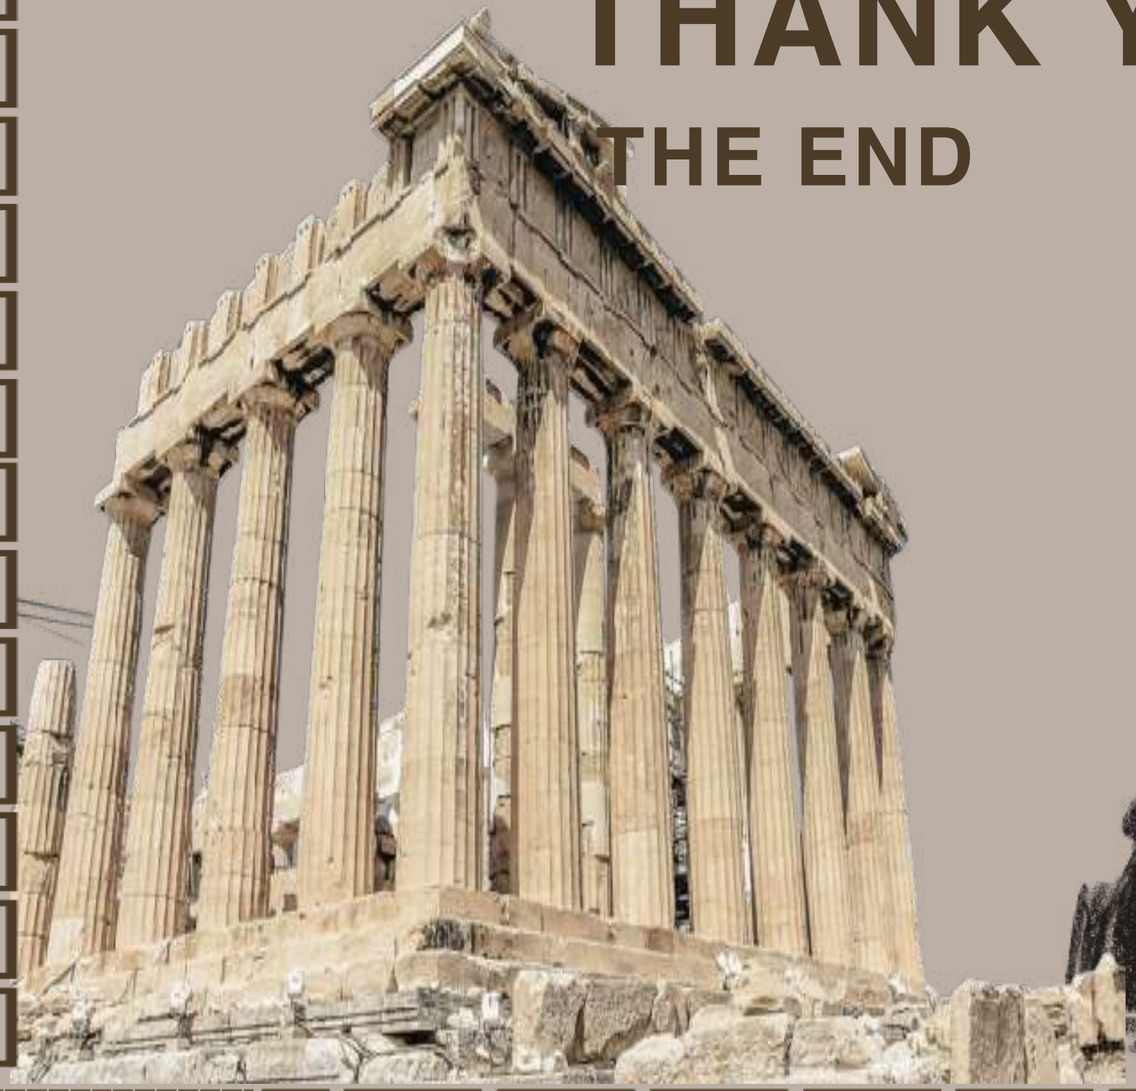

BIBLIOGRAPHY

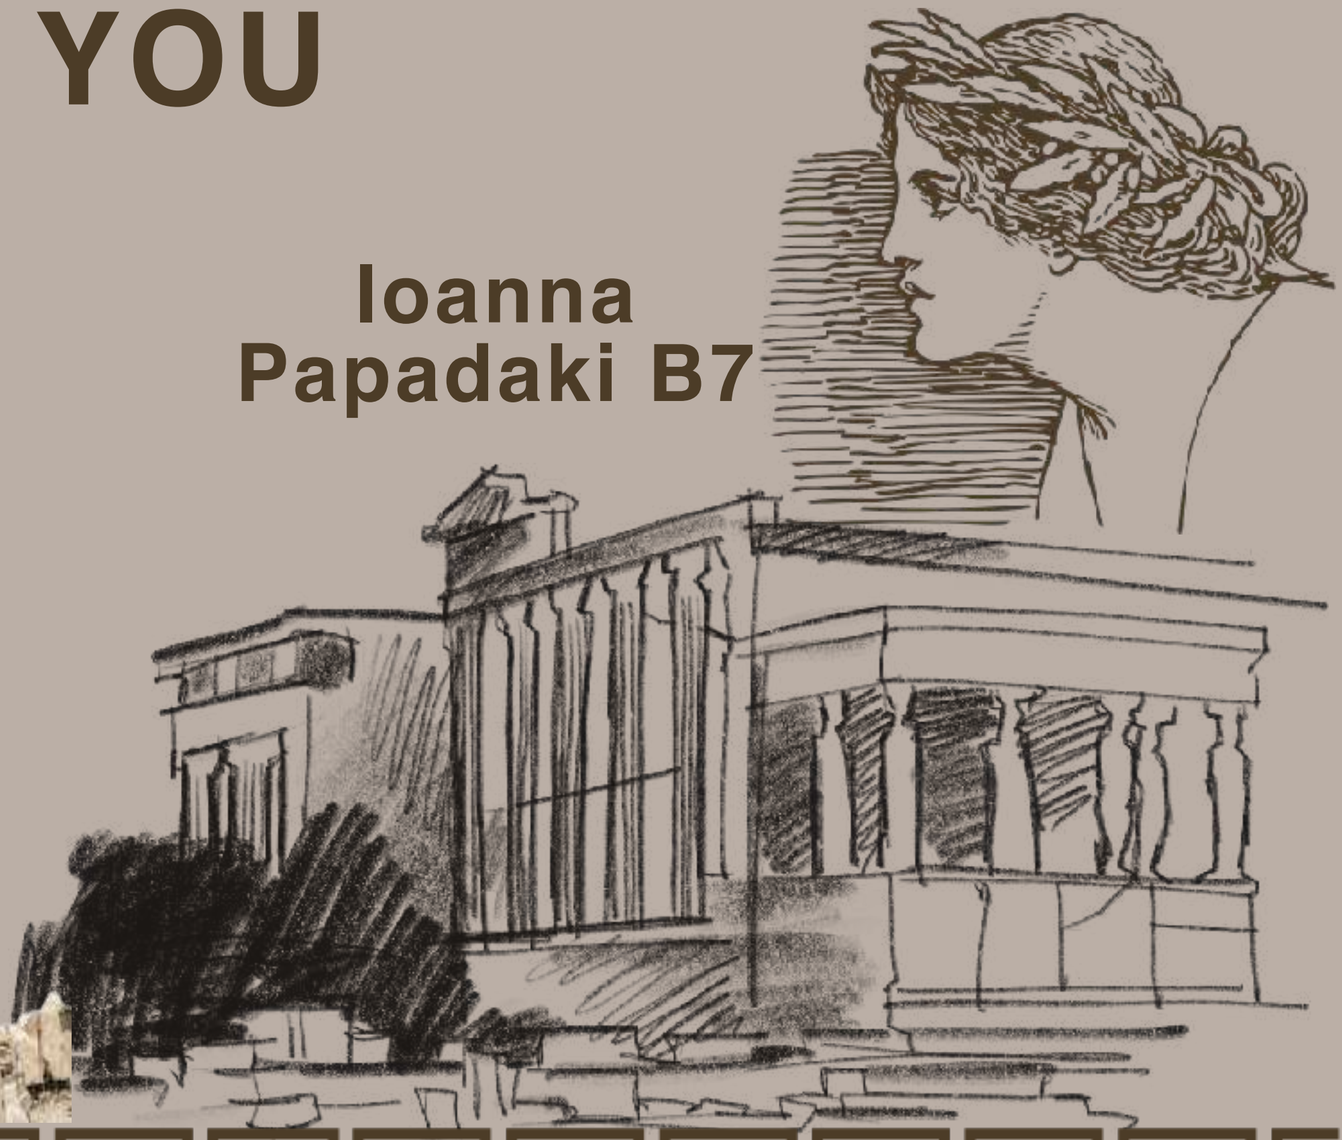

- https://www.pemptousia.gr/2022/09/o-mithos-tis-chamenis-atlantidas/
- https://el.wikipedia.org/wiki/
- https://el.wikipedia.org/wiki/
- https://el.wikipedia.org/wiki/
- https://mythoi.org/pandoras-box/
- https://argolikivivliothiki.gr/2018/03/12/the-rape-of-persephone/

THANK YOU

THE END

Ioanna
Papadaki B7